Description :

PDF-02f1c | "This strikingly original book poses a crucial challenge to historic preservation in American cities: how can these efforts avoid the too-common fate of historically-grounded gentrification, and instead contribute to genuinely inclusive urban revitalization within those very communities whose buildings and streetscapes are being lovingly preserved and restored? Hurley's answer, informed by broad r... Beyond Preservation: Using Public History to Revitalize Inner Cities (Urban Life, Landscape and Policy)
