Description :

PDF-55ea4 | Back in the eighties, when the Western world was deluged by a wave of blue denim, Carhartt's brown duck work coats entered the streets as an antidote. Detached from their original raison d'être of attiring hard-working men in mines and on railroad tracks, they arrived in our cities as some sort of new anti-denim. Soon after, and largely due to the efforts of Carhartt's European distributor ...
