Description :

PDF-df285 | For award-winning architect Gil Schafer, the most successful houses are the ones that celebrate the small moments of life—houses with timeless charm that are imbued with memory and anchored in a distinct sense of place. Essentially, Schafer believes a house is truly successful when the people who live there consider it home. It's this belief—and Schafer's rare ability to translate his client's vision into reality—has made him one of the most sought-after architects in the country. A Place to Call Home: Tradition, Style, and Memory in the New American House
